Who Do You Think You Are? Week 1
I AM ________?

SCRIPTURE READING: Genesis 1:26–27

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS
1. How does your perceived identity affect your everyday life? Give some examples?

2. From what are you prone to get your identity, other than Jesus? (Stuff, positions. others, longings, sufferings?)

3. What does being made in the image of God mean to you?

4. What is an image bearer? How do we practically image God?

5. Think of a time of crisis in your life. Did you discover anything about finding your identity in something or someone other than Jesus through that experience?

6. Why is it important for you to personally understand who you are?

PRAYER IDEAS
• As we explore where we are finding our identity, let’s pray for God to reveal the places, other than in Christ, from which we try to get our identity and lay them before the cross.

• Pray that the Holy Spirit will give us the courage to speak the truth about ourselves, and to one another in love, even when it’s difficult. Pray that we have the courage to receive what God has for us in this study.

• Pray that our friends and relatives who have never trusted in Jesus, and are crippled by an identity in something or someone other than Him will use us to bring the good news to them.
Who Do You Think You Are? Week 2
I AM IN CHRIST.

SCRIPTURE READING: Ephesians 1:15-23

DISSCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What is the difference between a biography and a testimony?

2. What does it mean for a person to be “in” something?

3. How many times did Paul refer to being “in Christ” in the first fourteen verses of Ephesians 1? What does it mean for you to be “in Christ?”

4. How does understanding your identity in Christ help you battle the false identities that Bill spoke about in the first week of this sermon series?

5. When it comes to your personal struggle with sin and spiritual growth, why is it important for you to personally understand who you are “in” Christ?

PRAYER IDEAS

• Take some time thanking Jesus for bringing us unto himself. Tell Him what it means personally to be “in” Christ.

• Pray for the Holy Spirit to continue in the work of opening our eyes to the things in our lives that are competing for the source of our identity.

• Pray for those we know who are not yet “in” Christ, that they will soon know find their identity in Him who saves.
