Big Idea: Live free every day in Jesus' name.

I am free from living divided.

Colossians 3:17 (NLT)

17 And whatever you do or say, do it as a representative of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks through him to God the Father.

Where this week did you quietly decide God doesn't get a vote?
Inbox, group chat, Saturday morning?

I am free from pretending and performing.

I am free from obeying to be accepted.

GROUPS QUESTIONS:

- 1. What stood out to you the most in this week's message, and why?

2. The big idea was, "Live free every day in Jesus' name." What do you think it looks like to live with that kind of freedom in your daily life?
3. Pastor Bill asked, "Where this week did you quietly decide God doesn't get a vote?" What areas of everyday life can be the easiest to leave God out of, and why?
4. What does it look like to live a life that is fully surrendered to Jesus rather than compartmentalizing your faith?
5. What is the difference between living authentically before God and trying to pretend or perform for others?
6. Have you ever found yourself trying to earn God's approval through your actions? What helped you understand that His acceptance is based on what Jesus has done rather than what you do?
7. How does knowing you are already accepted by God change your motivation for obeying Him?
8. Looking at this week's message, what is one area where you sense God inviting you to experience greater freedom in Christ?
